UNITED STATES VICTIMS OF STATE SPONSORED TERRORISM FUND

SPECIAL MASTER’S REPORT REGARDING THE SIXTH DISTRIBUTION

January 2026

1. INTRODUCTION

The Justice for United States Victims of State Sponsored Terrorism Act<sup>1</sup> established the United States Victims of State Sponsored Terrorism Fund (the “Fund”) in 2015. In November 2019, Congress enacted the United States Victims of State Sponsored Terrorism Fund Clarification Act,<sup>2</sup> amending the original legislation in significant ways that affected the administration of the Fund. Among other changes, the Clarification Act changed the payment calculation methodology, added relevant definitions, extended the life of the Fund, and increased the potential Fund deposit amounts from certain kinds of cases. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, and the Fairness for 9/11 Families Act (2022) further amended the governing legislation,<sup>3</sup> codified at 34 U.S.C. § 20144 (the “Act”).

As required by the Act, id. at (i), the Special Master provides this report to Congress after the sixth round of payments. The report includes an overview of the Fund and sources of its funding, an explanation of the procedures for filing and processing of applications for compensation, and an analysis of the payments made to eligible claimants and the amount of outstanding eligible claims.<sup>4</sup>

2. OVERVIEW OF THE FUND

The Fund provides compensation to eligible claimants who hold judgments against state sponsors of terrorism, were hostages held in the United States embassy in Iran from 1979 to 1981 and their spouses and children, or are the personal representative of such persons who are deceased.<sup>5</sup> Subject to statutory conditions, the Fund makes payments to eligible claimants on a

<sup>4</sup> This report provides data accurate as of the date of its submission. The Fund and claimants occasionally update claim information, so data in this report may differ from data provided in previous reports.

<sup>5</sup> More specifically, the Fund may compensate United States persons who (1) hold a final judgment issued by a United States district court awarding the applicant compensatory damages arising from acts of international terrorism for which a foreign state sponsor of terrorism was found not immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act (“FSIA”); (2) were taken and held hostage from the pro rata basis out of available funds. As the Fund is replenished, eligible claimants may receive payments out of available funds in subsequent distribution rounds until all claims have been paid in full or the Fund terminates in 2039.

3. SOURCES OF FUNDING

Since establishing the Fund in 2015, Congress has enacted three appropriations totaling approximately $6.7 billion to the Fund: an initial appropriation of $1.025 billion for the first round of payments to all then-eligible claimants; an appropriation of approximately $2.7 billion for amounts necessary to make the lump sum catch-up payments for 9/11 victims, spouses, and dependents; and a $3 billion reserve fund to make the lump sum catch-up payments to certain 1983 Beirut barracks bombing victims and 1996 Khobar Towers bombing victims with eligible claims to the Fund. As required by the Act, the lump sum catch-up payment reserve fund terminated within one year after the Special Master “disperse[d]” all lump sum catch-up payments to the eligible claimants. All amounts that remained in that reserve fund in excess of lump sum catch-up payments calculated for certain 1983 Beirut barracks bombing victims and 1996 Khobar Towers bombing victims were deposited into the Fund in August 2025.

Aside from those specific and limited appropriations, the only continuing funding for this victim compensation program comes from proceeds of federal enforcement actions. Specifically, the Act directs that certain funds and property forfeited or paid to the United States as criminal or civil penalties or fines after December 18, 2015 must be transferred to the Fund. Id. at (e)(2). All of the proceeds of qualifying criminal cases must be deposited. The Clarification Act increased the percentage of qualifying civil matters that must be deposited into the Fund from 50 percent to 75 percent.<sup>6</sup> These deposits are available for all statutorily authorized Fund uses, such as payments to all then-eligible claimants.

Since the Fund’s establishment in 2015, deposits from qualifying cases total approximately $3.6 billion. The Fund provides on its website a list of deposits received in cases or matters with publicly available information where some or all of the proceeds qualified for deposit into the Fund.<sup>7</sup> The Fund website also includes a chart showing deposits accumulated by the Fund by fiscal year. The Fund updates the deposit information periodically after additional funds from qualifying cases or matters are deposited into the Fund.

4. PROCEDURES FOR FILING AND PROCESSING APPLICATIONS FOR COMPENSATION

a. Application Process

The application process has remained fundamentally the same since the inception of the Fund. The claimant has the burden of establishing eligibility for payment by the Fund under the Act. Each claimant must submit his or her own application, and, if the claimant is the estate of a deceased individual, provide the requisite information for the personal representative of the decedent.

The personal representative for a deceased claimant is normally the individual appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction as the personal representative of the deceased claimant's will or estate, executor of the deceased claimant's will, or the administrator of the deceased claimant's estate. Accordingly, the personal representative provides copies of relevant legal documents, such as court orders, letters testamentary, letters of administration, or similar documentation.

A claimant may obtain an Application Form on the Fund's website,<sup>8</sup> or by calling or submitting a written request. Application Forms may be submitted online, by email, by mail, or via toll-free facsimile. If claimants are represented by counsel, counsel may submit their applications.

Claimants generally must file no later than 90 days after the date of obtaining a final judgment, except for those claimants subject to special statutory deadlines. To be considered for sixth-round payments, new claimants were required to submit complete applications by June 2, 2025. Claimants who were eligible for earlier-round payments were not required to re-submit applications to be considered for sixth-round payments. Each claimant has only one claim before the Fund, and has a continuing obligation to update claim information, including any additional judgments or compensatory damages amounts, changes to identity of the Personal Representative of a deceased claimant, and compensation from any source other than the Fund.

b. Application Requirements

i. Iran Hostages and Their Spouses and Children

A claimant who sought to establish eligibility for payment as a hostage from the United States embassy in Tehran, Iran, during the period beginning November 4, 1979, and ending January 20, 1981, or spouse or child thereof, must have submitted: (1) verification that he or she was taken hostage, a marriage certificate if a hostage's spouse, or a birth certificate or adoption decree if a hostage's child; and (2) if a hostage's spouse or child, verification that he or she is a member of the proposed class in case number 1:00-CV-03110 (EGS) of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

The Act prescribes the eligible claim amount as the sum total of $10,000 per day for each day that a United States person was taken and held hostage from the United States embassy in Tehran, Iran, during the period beginning November 4, 1979, and ending January 20, 1981. Id. at (c)(2)(B). For those held for the entire 444-day period, the eligible claim amount is $4,440,000. For each spouse and each child of a former hostage, the Act sets the eligible claim amount as $600,000. Id. at (c)(2)(C). As with final judgment amounts, these eligible claim amounts are subject to pro rata calculation in accordance with the terms of the Act. Id. at (d)(3)(A)(i).

ii. Judgment Holders

A claimant seeking to establish eligibility for payment on the basis of a final judgment issued by a United States district court under state or federal law against a state sponsor of terrorism and arising from an act of international terrorism, for which the foreign state was found not immune under provisions of the FSIA,<sup>9</sup> must submit, among other documents, a copy of the final judgment, as well as a list identifying any immediate family member(s) of the claimant also identified in the final judgment. Claimants with a final judgment against an instrumentality of a state sponsor of terrorism are eligible for compensation from the Fund; however, claimants with a final judgment solely against a terrorist group or organization, and not against a state sponsor of terrorism, are not eligible for compensation.

c. Review and Adjudication

Attorneys employed by the Department of Justice (“Fund attorneys”), as well as the Fund’s claims administrator, review applications to the Fund. If an application is deficient, the Fund notifies the claimant, or their attorney if the claimant is represented, and offers an opportunity to resolve the deficiencies. Fund attorneys make recommendations regarding eligibility to the Special Master, who has the statutory authority to determine claims are eligible or to deny claims.

All of the Special Master’s decisions about compensation from the Fund are final and not subject to administrative or judicial review. Id. at (b)(3). However, no later than 30 days after receipt of a written decision by the Special Master, a claimant whose application was denied in whole or in part may request a hearing before the Special Master or his or her designee. Id. at (b)(4). No later than 90 days after a hearing, the Special Master must issue a written decision affirming or amending the original decision; the written decision is final and non-reviewable. Id.

d. Payment

The Act authorizes the Special Master to order payment from the Fund “for each eligible claim of a United States person to that person or, if that person is deceased, to the personal representative of the estate of that person.” Id. at (d)(1). Subject to certain conditions and limitations, eligible claims are paid on a pro rata basis out of available funds, based on the amounts outstanding and unpaid on eligible claims, until all such amounts have been paid in full or the Fund terminates in 2039.

<sup>9</sup> Specifically, the foreign state must have been determined not to be immune from the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States under 28 U.S.C. § 1605A. Act at (c)(2)(A)(ii).

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

The Act requires that all claimants identify compensation from any source other than the Fund that the claimant or the claimant's beneficiaries have received or are entitled or scheduled to receive as a result of the act of international terrorism that gave rise to the final judgment. Id. at (b)(2)(B). The claimant must provide all relevant information and documentation in their application and update the Fund about any additional amounts received after filing the application. This assists the Fund in determining the amounts outstanding and unpaid on the claims.

The Act includes specific provisions which affect payments to claimants in particular circumstances. The sections below explain conditions and limitations on payments to eligible claimants.<sup>10</sup>

i. Dividing Available Funds between 9/11-Related Victims and Other Victims

The Act mandates that the Fund divide in half the total amount allocated for payments in a distribution, and then allocate one-half to 9/11-related victims, and the other half to all other claimants (other judgment-holders and Iran hostages and their families). Id. at (d)(3)(A)(i). Within each of the two resulting pools of available funds, the Fund distributes the funds pro rata, subject to the other statutory limitations and conditions. For the sixth round, the Fund allocated a total of $2.825 billion. Accordingly, when calculating sixth-round payments, the Fund allocated $1.4125 billion for eligible 9/11-related claimants, and $1.4125 billion for all other eligible claimants. There are 12,974 9/11-related eligible claimants, and 8,756 non-9/11-related eligible claimants.<sup>11</sup>

ii. Judgment Amounts

The Act places limits on the amount of compensatory damages included in the Fund's payment calculations. In the event any applicant is awarded a judgment with gross compensatory damages that exceed $20 million, the Special Master must treat that claim as if the compensatory award were $20 million. Act at (d)(3)(A)(ii)(I). This individual cap applies to all claimants, and has been in effect since the Fund's inception.

The Act also applies family-based limitations on awards, in addition to the individual cap. The Act mandates different family caps for the non-9/11-related victims and their families than for 9/11-related victims and their families.

<sup>10</sup> The Fund's website also provides details of the sixth-round award calculation methodology for both 9/11-related and non-9/11-related victims. See <https://www.usvsst.com/Home/Payments>.

<sup>11</sup> As explained below, some eligible claimants are not included in payment calculations. See, e.g., infra section (5)(d). See also infra n.20. As also explained below, five eligible claims are both 9/11- and non-9/11-related. See infra n.19.

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

For non-9/11-related claimants, victims and their immediate family members are subject to a collective $35 million cap. Id. at (d)(3)(A)(ii)(II). The same $35 million cap applies to family groups comprised of 9/11 victims, 9/11 spouses, and 9/11 dependents. Id. at (d)(3)(A)(ii)(III); see also (j)(10)-(14) (defining terms). However, a $20 million cap applies to family groups comprised of 9/11 family members who are not 9/11 victims, 9/11 spouses, or 9/11 dependents. Id. at (d)(3)(A)(ii)(IV). This lower cap applies to, for example, non-dependent parents or siblings of 9/11 victims.

The Fund applies the $20 million individual cap before applying the relevant family cap, and then uses these adjusted amounts when calculating payments.

iii. Payments from Other Sources

Claimants who have received 30 percent or more of their compensatory damages from sources other than the Fund may not receive payments from the Fund until all other claimants have received 30 percent of their compensatory damages from the Fund. Id. at (d)(3)(B).<sup>12</sup> Claimants who have received some, but less than 30 percent, of their compensatory damages from sources other than the Fund have their awards adjusted to account for the percentage other claimants receive from the Fund.

iv. Prohibition on Payments to Anyone Criminally Culpable for an Act of International Terrorism

The Act contains a special exclusion provision, which provides that no individual “who is criminally culpable for an act of international terrorism” may “receive any compensation . . . either directly or on behalf of a victim.” Id. at (h). The Special Master consults with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”) to ensure that background checks are conducted on eligible claimants.<sup>13</sup>

v. Conditional Payments Allocated but not Disbursed

The Act includes a special provision for Settling Judgment Creditors as identified in the order dated May 27, 2014, in the proceedings captioned In Re 650 Fifth Avenue & Related

<sup>12</sup> The Comptroller General, Government Accountability Office determined that certain eligible claimants who were excluded from Fund general distributions because they recovered more than 30 percent of their compensatory damages from sources other than the Fund were eligible to receive lump sum catch-up payments. See U.S. Gov’t Accountability Off., GAO-25-107564, U.S. Victims of State Sponsored Terrorism Fund: 1983 Beirut Barracks and 1996 Khobar Towers Bombing Claimants Due $614 Million (2024), at 8-9.

<sup>13</sup> FBI background checks are conducted on the eligible claimants, such as the victims themselves, deceased victims, and the personal representatives of deceased victims. FBI background checks are not conducted on the beneficiaries of a deceased claimant’s estate (other than personal representatives) because they do not receive any compensation directly from the Fund or on behalf of the victim. In addition, as stated in the System of Records Notice (“SORN”) (Department of Justice, Privacy Act of 1974; Systems of Records, 81 Fed. Reg. 45539, 45540 (July 14, 2016)), Fund records are disseminated to “the Department of [the] Treasury to ensure that any recipients of federal payments who also owe delinquent federal debts have their payment offset or withheld or reduced to satisfy the debt.”

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

Properties, No. 08 Civ. 10934 (S.D.N.Y.).<sup>14</sup> These individuals had the option to file conditional applications; for these claimants, the Fund determines eligibility and award amounts, but withholds the payments, pending a final judgment in the proceedings.

The Fund received a total of 149 applications from these Settling Judgment Creditors who had eligible claims. Of these, 111 have become eligible to receive their allocated awards.<sup>15</sup> Accordingly, for the remaining 38 eligible conditional applicants, the Special Master allocated, but did not distribute a total of $12,012,729.54 ($1,160,768.50 from the initial round, $356,617.86 from the second round, $2,583,969.21 from the third round, $213,823.89 from the fourth round, $2,106,186.14 from the fifth round, and $5,591,363.94 from the sixth round). The In Re 650 Fifth Avenue & Related Properties litigation remains pending and the amount allocated to conditional applicants will be withheld until a final judgment is entered.

5. ANALYSIS OF PAYMENTS MADE TO ELIGIBLE CLAIMANTS FROM THE FUND

a. Number of Applications for Compensation Submitted

A total of 1,508 new claims were submitted for consideration for sixth-round payments. From the inception of the Fund until the June 2, 2025 deadline for sixth-round applications,<sup>16</sup> the Fund received a total of 22,974 applications for compensation.

b. Number of Applications Approved and Amount of Each Award

A total of 20,350 eligible claimants from the first five rounds of distributions remained eligible for future distributions.<sup>17</sup> The Special Master approved 1,373<sup>18</sup> applications submitted or completed for consideration for sixth-round payments. Of the 21,723 claimants eligible to receive payments, 12,972 are 9/11-related and 8,756 are non-9/11-related.<sup>19</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Discussion of the similar special provision for judgment creditors in Peterson v. Islamic Republic of Iran, No. 10 Civ. 4518 (S.D.N.Y) can be found in the August 2017 Supplemental Report to Congress, available on the Fund's website at <https://www.usvsst.com/Home/News>.

<sup>15</sup> Four previous applicants for conditional payment became eligible to receive their allocated awards in the third distribution. An additional 107 previous applicants for conditional payment became eligible to receive their allocated awards in the fifth distribution.

<sup>16</sup> The application period for sixth-round distributions was July 2, 2024 to June 2, 2025.

<sup>17</sup> See January 2025 Report Regarding the Fifth Distribution, available on the Fund's website at <https://www.usvsst.com/Home/News>. This number reflects the 20,351 claims identified as eligible to receive future distributions, plus one claimant whose claim was inadvertently omitted from the total in the January 2025 Report, and less two claimants whose claims were deemed eligible in the fourth round but who later withdrew their claims. The Fund did not allocate sixth-round payments to the withdrawn claimants.

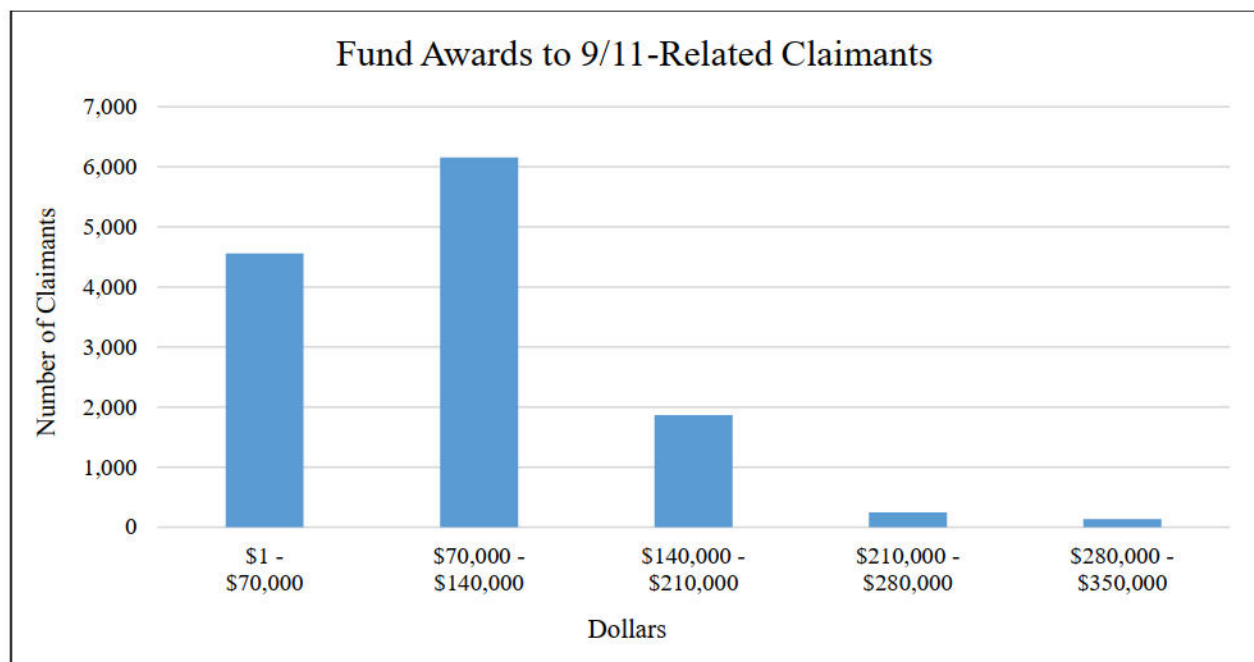

<sup>18</sup> This includes 66 claims that were deficient or unable to be found eligible in a prior round but were found eligible for sixth-round payments.

<sup>19</sup> Each claimant has only one claim before the Fund. Five claimants have separate judgments related to victims in 9/11 and other victims in non-9/11 acts of international terrorism. These claims are counted once for the total number of eligible claims, but are included in both totals of the 9/11-related claims and non-9/11-related claims.

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

The Fund allocated $2.825 billion for sixth-round payments. All eligible claimants were included in payment calculations for the sixth round, subject to the limitations in the Act.<sup>20</sup> On December 30, 2025, the Fund notified eligible claimants of their sixth-round award payment amounts, in advance of the January 1, 2026 statutory deadline to authorize payments. Act at (d)(4). Pursuant to the Privacy Act Notice in the Fund’s Application Form and the SORN, the amount of each award paid is provided in a separate addendum. On January 5, 2026, the Fund began issuing the sixth-round payments on a rolling basis.

For sixth-round payments, the payment percentage for 9/11-related claimants was 1.64 percent.<sup>21</sup> Generally, the award amounts for the eligible 9/11-related claimants for whom sixth-round payments were allocated ranged from approximately $11,000 to $330,000. The chart below shows that most 9/11-related claimants received award payments of less than $140,000.

For sixth-round payments, the payment percentage was 5.24 percent for non-9/11-related claimants.<sup>22</sup> Generally, the award amounts for the eligible non-9/11-related claimants for whom sixth-round payments were allocated ranged from approximately $2,000 to $1,050,000. The chart on the next page shows that most 9/11-related claimants received award payments of less than $350,000.

<sup>20</sup> These include the limitations set forth in section 4(d) above, as well as any other statutory limitations. For example, claimants who have received all of their compensatory damages from sources other than the Fund do not have any “amounts outstanding and unpaid,” Act at (d)(3)(A)(II)-(III), and are not included in payment calculations.

<sup>21</sup> The Fund’s website provides details of the sixth-round award calculation methodology for both 9/11-related and non-9/11-related victims. See <https://www.usvsst.com/Home/Payments>.

c. Number of Applications Denied and Reasons for Denial

The Special Master denied, in whole or in part, 204 applications that were submitted for consideration for sixth-round payments. The Special Master also denied, in whole or in part, 30 applications that were submitted for consideration in the first five rounds. All of these claims were denied because the claimants did not meet the statutory eligibility requirements; e.g., they did not hold a qualifying final judgment. Of the total 22,974 applications submitted to the Fund for consideration through the sixth distribution, 1,114<sup>23</sup> have been denied.

d. Number of Applications Pending for Which Compensatory Damages Have Not Been Paid in Full

No claimants have received the full amount of their compensatory damages from the Fund. All eligible claimants were included in payment calculations for the sixth round, subject to the limitations in the Act.<sup>24</sup> The Fund continues to make sixth-round payments on a rolling basis in the amounts detailed in an addendum to this report. Those who did not receive payments to date include 38 Settling Judgment Creditors from In Re 650 Fifth Avenue who filed applications for conditional payment. As explained in section 4(d)(v), supra, those claimants were allocated payment amounts, but the allocated amounts will be withheld until a final judgment is entered. Finally, 1,429 claimants had either (i) already received more than <sup>23</sup> This includes the 234 denials from the sixth distribution and the 880 denials in the prior five rounds.

<sup>24</sup> These include the limitations set forth in section 4(d) above, as well as any other statutory limitations. For example, claimants who have received all of their compensatory damages from sources other than the Fund do not have any “amounts outstanding and unpaid,” Act at (d)(3)(A)(II)-(III), and will not be included in payment calculations.

Report Regarding the Sixth Distribution

30 percent of their total compensatory judgment amounts from other sources, or (ii) received more than the maximum potential payout amount from other sources. Accordingly, they were precluded from receiving sixth-round payment amounts, as explained in section 4(d)(iii), supra, but may receive payments in future distributions.

e. Total Amount of Compensatory Damages from Eligible Claims That Have Been Paid and Remain Unpaid

To date, the Special Master has paid or allocated sixth-round awards to 20,294 claims; these are the 21,723 claims eligible for payment, less the 1,429 claimants who had either (i) already received more than 30 percent of their total compensatory judgment amounts from other sources, or (ii) received more than the maximum potential payout amount from other sources. Since the inception of the Fund, eligible claims have been paid or allocated a total of $10,518,879,894.86 in compensatory damages.

A total of $126,148,897,022.60 in uncapped compensatory damages (or statutory award amounts for Iran hostages and their spouses and children) and $105,397,836,844.38 in capped<sup>25</sup> compensatory damages (or statutory award amounts for Iran hostages and their spouses and children) currently remains unpaid on the 21,723 eligible claims that may receive future distributions.

f. Future Distributions

To date, the Fund has paid or allocated over $10 billion to eligible claimants. Eligible claimants from all six rounds of payments, as well as any new eligible claimants, may also receive awards in future rounds of payments. The Fund continues to accept applications for the next round of payments, the timing of which depends on the availability of sufficient funds. Under the terms of the Act, the Fund will make its last obligations no later than January 2, 2039. Act at (e)(6).
